Mayor LeBlanc recognized Councilmember Garcia to read the Proclamation to Recognize May 2026 as Asian American, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islander Heritage Month into the record.

b. Proclamation to recognize May as Mental Health Awareness Month

Mayor LeBlanc recognized Councilmember del Aguila to read the Proclamation to Recognize May 2026 as Mental Health Awareness Month into the record.

Mayor LeBlanc stated that members of the audience are invited to comment on the proclamations during the "Comments from the Audience" portion of the agenda.

c. Town Manager Report

Dan Hoffman, Town Manager, thanked Marjorie Sloan, Director of Finance, and her staff, for all their work in drafting, submitting, and finalizing this year's budget.

d. Councilmember Comments

Councilmember Garcia: shared that last Saturday, he had the opportunity to participate in the Runnymede Park Clean-up. He stated that he enjoyed the different experience.

Councilmember Lloyd: stated that he will have more comments during the public hearings. He stated that he and Councilmember Reyes would be competing in the jalapeño eating contest at the Polar Heat on Lynn Street event on Saturday, May 16. He looked forward to the event.

Councilmember Reyes: responded to Councilmember Lloyd's comments on the jalapeño eating contest.

Councilmember Reyes thanked Councilmember del Aguila for reading the proclamation recognizing Mental Health Month. He shared a personal story about a friend that was impacted by mental health issues and encouraged everyone to reach out and listen to friends and neighbors.

Councilmember del Aguila: commented on the following:

1. Herndon Police Department Recognition Awards on Saturday, April 25, where he enjoyed listening to inspiring stories of valor. He thanked the Town Manager, Chief of Police, and the Herndon Police Officers.
2. Proclamation to recognize Mental Health Month, sharing that it was quite meaningful to him, particularly now because of what occurred with the death of Former Lt. Governor Justin Fairfax and his wife. He offered his personal thoughts on failures that he thought occurred on several levels that should be addressed. He encouraged everyone to reach out to others that may be going through mental health issues and tell them to keep going. He provided several resources that may help assist and indicated that he would post related links on his social media.

Vice Mayor Hedrick: commented on the following:

1. Wished a happy anniversary to his wife, stating that they were celebrating 14 years of marriage.
2. Expressed support for the FY 2027 budget process, stating that it was collaborative between the Council and staff. He commended the Finance Department, and all department heads, for their hard work on the budget.

3. Addressed a seat at the dais that had been empty for the last six months, and he wished them health and well-being. He stated that evening, one of the budget items requires a super majority vote, and the presence of all Councilmembers is extremely important, not just tonight, but at every meeting, and especially as they were going through the budget process. He mentioned several colleagues in other elected offices that continued to show up and work for their constituents despite dealing with serious health crises.

Mayor LeBlanc: commented on the following:

1. Proclamation to recognize Mental Health Month: stating that there are still stigmas attached to seeking mental health care. He encouraged anyone who needs a safe space to talk to reach out to him. Mayor LeBlanc also stated that there is more work to be done with the State Legislature to obtain more resources to better care for those in our community who suffer from mental health challenges.
2. On Sunday, April 19, Mayor LeBlanc recognized National Volunteer Week at the Mayor's Volunteer Appreciation reception. He thanked those who attended the event, the nearly 400 nominated volunteers, current and former Council colleagues, local elected officials, Board and Commission Members, and Town staff who assisted with the event.
3. Mayor's Volunteer Appreciation Reception award winners: (1) Distinguished Service Award – Ling Nero, LINK; (2) Distinguished Service Award – Fanny Salazar-Laske - Opportunity Neighborhoods and other organizations; (3) Distinguished Corporate Service Award – Green Lizard Cycling, Green Lizard Foundation (Beth & Dave Meyer); and (4) Community Inclusion Business Award – She Believes in Me (Renee Gorman and Teri Taylor).

5. Public Hearings

- a. Ordinance 26-O-07 to approve Development Plan – DP #24-01, 575 Herndon Parkway, a development plan in the Planned Development-Transit Oriented Core (PD-TOC) Zoning District with proffered conditions to allow the redevelopment of the site with commercial and multifamily residential uses

Certificates of Publication were filed from the Editor of the Fairfax County Times newspaper, showing that notice of said public hearing items had been duly advertised in the April 10, 2026, and April 17, 2026, issues.

Mayor LeBlanc opened the public hearing and recognized Bryce Perry, Deputy Director of Community Development, for the staff report. Mr. Perry provided an overview of the proposed development plan at 575 Herndon Parkway. He discussed the location; previous and planned development on the site; proposed streetscapes; building and landscape design. He described the applicant proposal and included details about the multifamily residential units, residential and retail floor area, and interior space that is available for the Town's use. Mr. Perry discussed the requested modifications and stated that staff is not concerned with the requests, which are mainly due to the constraints of the site. He stated that the application does not include affordable housing, as the plan was already advancing when the Council adopted its guidance on affordable housing. Staff recommended approval of the proposed ordinance, as presented.

Council and staff discussed the proposed development plan, which included the requested modifications and proposed proffers. Mr. Perry confirmed that nothing in the item had changed since the Council's work session discussion of the application.

Mayor LeBlanc called on the applicant or applicant's agent for comments.

Laura Greenlief, McGuire Woods, the applicant's agent, reviewed the application, focusing on the proffers and the promenade design.

The public hearing was held, and the following individuals provided testimony:

1. Barbara Nicolini, 1117 Burwick Drive, requested more information about parking.

Seeing no further public comment, Mayor LeBlanc asked if the applicant's agent wanted to respond. Ms. Greenlief clarified that the parking lot is not underground, it is wrapped by units, and it exceeds the minimum parking requirements.

Mayor LeBlanc closed the public hearing and moved to Council level for discussion and action.

Vice Mayor Hedrick moved approval of Ordinance 26-O-07 to approve Development Plan – DP #24-01, 575 Herndon Parkway, a development plan in the Planned Development-Transit Oriented Core (PD-TOC) Zoning District with proffered conditions to allow the redevelopment of the site with commercial and multifamily residential uses, as presented.

Motion seconded by Councilmember Reyes.

There were brief comments from Council.

The question was called on the motion, which carried by a 6-0 roll call vote. The vote was: Councilmembers del Aguila, Garcia, Lloyd, Reyes, Vice Mayor Hedrick and Mayor LeBlanc voting "Aye". Councilmember Alam was absent.

b. Resolution 26-G-26 to approve a Special Exception – SE #26-01, 1020 Elden Street, Suite 205, a special exception to permit a personal service use consisting of hair services, within the Commercial Office (CO) Zoning District Mayor LeBlanc opened the public hearing and recognized Fadrique Iglesias, Community Planner, who presented the staff report. Mr. Iglesias provided an overview of the application for a special exception for a hair salon personal use at 1020 Elden Street, Suite 205, discussing the location; zoning use and comprehensive plan designation; hours and staff, and parking analysis. He stated that staff and the Planning Commission recommend approval of the proposed resolution with conditions.

The Council and staff discussed the number of employees and clients that could be on the site.

Mayor LeBlanc called on the applicant or applicant's agent for comments.

Carol Martinez, 1020 Elden Street, the applicant, talked about the application and stated she was excited to open her business.

The public hearing was held, and the following individuals provided testimony:

1. Teresa Yacoub, 1119 Burwick Drive, asked for more information about the salon and the types of services that will be offered.

Seeing no further public comment, Mayor LeBlanc asked if the applicant's agent wanted to respond. Ms. Martinez stated her business will offer all types of hair services and no other types of cosmetology services.

Seeing no further comments, Mayor LeBlanc closed the public hearing and moved to Council level for discussion and action.

Councilmember del Aguila moved approval of Resolution 26-G-26 to approve a Special Exception – SE #26-01, 1020 Elden Street, Suite 205, a special exception to permit a personal service use consisting of hair services, within the Commercial Office (CO) Zoning District, as presented.

Motion seconded by Councilmember Reyes.

The question was called on the motion, which carried by a 6-0 roll call vote. The vote was: Councilmembers del Aguila, Garcia, Lloyd, Reyes, Vice Mayor Hedrick and Mayor LeBlanc voting "Aye". Councilmember Alam was absent.

FY 2027 Proposed Budget

[Note: these public hearing items were continued from the April 14, 2026, public hearing]

Mayor LeBlanc resumed the public hearings and recognized Lesa Yeatts, Town Attorney, who provided information on the voting process for that evening's public hearing items.

Mayor LeBlanc recognized Marjorie Sloan, Director of Finance, who provided brief comments on the proposed budget.

The Council and staff discussed the process by which the Town carries over the reserve funds from one fiscal year to the next. Ms. Sloan stated that she could provide more information to Councilmember Lloyd.

Mayor LeBlanc advised that one concurrent public comment period will be held on all budget public hearing items. The following individuals provided testimony:

1. Teresa Yacoub, 1119 Burwick Drive, Herndon: requested funding for nets around the golf course, stating that she had provided a petition to the Council with signatures from her neighbors in support of a net between the Golf Course and their neighborhood.
2. Barbara Glakas, 929 Barton Oaks Place, Herndon: provided comments on the cost of the bulk trash pick-up days, asking that the Town fund one bulk trash pick-up in FY 2027.
3. Jay Hadlock, 515 Alabama Drive, Herndon: provided general comments, and asked that the Town Council respond to emails sent to them. He also asked for greater transparency in the budget, especially for the water and sewer fund.
4. Barbara Nicolini, 1117 Burwick Drive, Herndon: echoed Ms. Yacoub's comments asking for a net at the golf course and asked for help fixing holes in her house. She also asked the Council to consider adding one bulk trash pick-up.

5. Kyle Yantis, 511 Merlins Lane, Herndon: questioned funding allocated to the Communications and Economic Development and Herndon Police departments.

Seeing no further comments, Mayor LeBlanc closed the public hearings and moved to Council level for discussion and action.

Public Hearing on Tax Levy Ordinance:

Councilmember del Aguila moved approval of Ordinance 26-O-08 to Levy Taxes on Real Estate and Manufactured Homes, and Other Subjects for the Fiscal Year 2027 Budget, as presented.

Motion seconded by Councilmember Garcia.

There were comments from Council, which focused on the following:

1. Concern expressed over the amount of taxes paid by residents, with a request to shift some of the residents' tax burden to rate payers for costs associated with the provision of services (Vice Mayor Hedrick).
2. Impact of rising inflation on costs; request for the Town to work with Fairfax County to consider tax breaks for senior citizen residents (Councilmember Lloyd).
3. Collaborative budget process, work between the Council and staff (Councilmember del Aguila).
4. Looking at other ways to manage the tax burden on residents due to the decreasing number of commercial properties contributing to the tax base (Mayor LeBlanc).

The question was called on the motion, which carried by a 6-0 roll call vote. The vote was: Councilmembers del Aguila, Garcia, Lloyd, Reyes, Vice Mayor Hedrick, and Mayor LeBlanc voting "Aye". Councilmember Alam was absent.
